Golf Tournament to Benefit United Cerebral Palsy

Los Angeles, CA, October 9, 2008—NSBN's (www.nsb.com) 16th Annual Golf Tournament, co-sponsored by EastWest Bank, Goldrich & Kest Industries and Rochdale Investment Management, with proceeds benefiting United Cerebral Palsy (UCP), is scheduled for Thursday, November 6, 2008 at the Robinson Ranch Golf Course in Santa Clarita.

The golf tournament is part of the CPA & Business Consulting firm's ongoing NSBN Gives Back program. As in the past, proceeds from this tournament will benefit the many programs and services of UCP, an organization dedicated to building a community filled with dreams, choice, freedom, and promise where all persons are welcomed and accepted, regardless of disability. "Participants of this golf tournament will help feed, clothe, and house more than 350 people with significant developmental disabilities," says Steve Asher, Partner at NSBN and golf tournament chairman. It will assist families in meeting the 24-hour demands of raising disabled children. It will also help children with disabilities to receive vital treatments that will impact the quality of life they will have as adults.

The golf tournament will be held at Robinson Ranch Golf Course, located at 27734 Sand Canyon Road, in Santa Clarita, CA. The day will include continental breakfast, lunch, refreshments on the course, hosted cocktails, silent auction, raffle, & dinner.

For further information about the golf tournament or to register, please visit www.nsb.com/events. If you are interested in additional sponsorship opportunities or donation to UCP, please contact Steve Asher at 310-288-4277.

NOTE TO EDITORS: NSBN invites all media to attend. Interviews with Steve Asher, Partner at NSBN and/or Ken Miles, Managing Partner at NSBN will be available at the event.
